Business litigation presents many unique challenges.

Webster Szanyi LLP has what it takes to meet them.

Since 1999, the experienced and highly skilled attorneys of Webster Szanyi LLP have provided clients with the best possible representation at a reasonable cost. We understand the pressures and dynamics of litigation. Our attorneys have previously worked for national law firms and as in-house counsel for Fortune 500 companies. We use this experience to provide a unique perspective to addressing legal challenges. We represent leading multi-national companies as well as many of Western New York's top businesses.

For legal matters of any size, our approach is to find the quickest and most cost-effective path to a positive resolution. As commercial litigation has become more complex, we have stayed at the forefront, driven by our focus on creativity, innovation and efficiency.

We also understand that clients sometimes have needs that do not always fit the traditional law firm model of hourly billing. Webster Szanyi LLP is one of the few area law firms offering business clients the opportunity to pursue legal disputes on a contingency-fee basis. That means, instead of an hourly rate, you pay legal fees only if the litigation is successful.

Distinctions

- Rated "AV" by the Martindale-Hubbell Attorney Rating System
- "Tier 1 Best Law Firm" as selected by Best Lawyers/U.S. News and World Report.

Our Contingency-Fee Business Litigation Practice May Be Your Solution.

It's a common dilemma. Senior management and those responsible for legal matters in a company are faced with initiating a lawsuit that has the potential to recover a substantial sum of money. But the risk of incurring hundreds of thousands of dollars in legal fees – with an uncertain outcome – may cause the company to forgo pursuing the claim.

Our contingency-fee business litigation practice is the solution.

Strategy. Contingency. Results.

With our contingency-fee business litigation practice, we team up with our client to develop a multi-dimensional strategy designed to achieve the best possible outcome. We work with clients on a fee arrangement that aligns our incentives, making it a priority to maximize the results in the case.

Litigating commercial matters on a contingency basis eliminates the potential for a significant outlay for attorney's fees and associated risk. At the same time, the interests of the firm and the client are united as we collaborate toward the same goal.

Our experienced attorneys will be pleased to discuss the advantages of our contingency-fee business litigation practice to determine if it may be a solution for your company. Of course, whether contingency or traditional hourly rate, you can always have confidence in the experienced team at Webster Szanyi LLP.
